

MRS. KENNETH D. COLBER
... On Wedding Day

Carol Vaughn Exchanges Vows with K. D. Colber

Miss Carol Marie Vaughn, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Newkirk, 147 E. 216th St., Torrance, exchanged her marriage promises with Kenneth Duane Colber at a 7 o'clock ceremony on Feb. 23 at the Torrance First Baptist Church. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Colber, 323 W. 220th St., Torrance.

Rev. Robert Dehn officiated as Mrs. Pat Owendyke, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Bonnie Medved who sang.

Mr. Newkirk escorted the bride to the altar. She wore a Chantilly lace wedding gown over white tulle. Featured were a fitted bodice, long sleeves and a Queen Anne collar. The full skirt was appliqued with lace. A pearl and sequin tiara held the illusion veil and her bouquet was of orchids, carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Jean Rayner was the matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Carol Colber and Miss Janet King. All wore red chiffon dresses and carried white roses tied with red. Theresa Reay, in red nylon, was the flower girl and Gregory King carried the rings.

James D. Rayner stood as best man and ushers were Dick Cowdery and Joe Powers.

A reception was held in Fellowship hall where Mrs. Barbara Flanagan registered the guests.

The newlyweds are now at home at 14815 Cadison St., Torrance.

Council to Serve Lenten Luncheon

"Luncheon is Served" says Mrs. Vincent Tremblay, ways and means chairman of the St. Catherine Labour Women's Council. The event, sponsored by the council, will take place Friday, March 15 at 12 p.m. in the parish hall at 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., in Torrance.

General chairman of the event is Mrs. Gerald Lytle. Assisting her as co-chairmen are Mmes. Felix Dellomes, William Achenbach, Robert Loehr, Paul Olson and Richard Thompson.

The lenten menu will be a full course meal consisting of soup, saltines, hot main dish, vegetable, salad, bread or roll and coffee or tea.

Following the luncheon, there will be an interesting food demonstration helpful to homemakers. Door prizes, gifts, recipe folders and money saving coupons will also be distributed by various food sponsors.

Babysitters will be available.

Mrs. Carl Metzler, ways and means co-chairman, extends an invitation to the public to attend.

To Hot Springs

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller of Yucaipa, who have spent a month in Torrance, left this week in their trailer for Desert Hot Springs to spend a month before going back to Yucaipa.

New Year For Emblem Club Begins

Mrs. Richard Keenan, newly-installed president of the Gardena Emblem Club, began the club's ninth year with a talk on the theme, "Service to All," pointing out the charitable, patriotic, civic and social purposes of the club.

The first social of the new year was held Feb. 21 under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Anderson and Mrs. William Garrett. Proceeds from the social went to the club's charity fund.

Mrs. William Dawson made her regular visit to G10 Ward at Harbor Hospital on Feb. 18.

Attending the third quarterly meeting of the California Assn. of Emblem Clubs held at the Mission Inn in Riverside recently were Mmes. Lee Partis, James Allgood, Richard Keenan, Mae Francis, and James Colella.

To Serve Fish Dinner Friday

Mrs. Stanley Rymza, ways and means chairman of Serra High School Mother's Club, announces that the freshman mothers will serve a fish dinner on Friday, March 8, from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Serra High School auditorium, 14839 S. Van Ness Ave., Gardena.

There is an economical family plan for large families.

New Fashions Shown At League's Benefit

Peninsula Committee of the Spastic Children's League and their guests saw a parade of elegant new spring fashions under the theme "Younger Than Springtime" Tuesday afternoon at The Broadway Del Amo.

The Terrace Room was decorated in spring flowers for the champagne showing which was narrated by Miss Catherine Wueste, fashion coordinator, for The Broadway Stores.

The show opened with "That Young Feeling" — a shock treatment in bold black and red, some checks, pinchecks and tablecloth checks. Done in pairs, these costumes featured the tunic pullover with pleated skirt underneath. The other, a black and white pincheck dress and pullover, done by Mr. Mort.

Parties for Mrs. I. Aller On Birthday

Mrs. Lee Allen and daughter, Susan Lea Allen, entertained at a surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. Irvin (Freda) Allen, 1019 Portola Ave.

The honoree was presented with an orchid corsage by her granddaughter, Susan Lea. She also received many cards and remembrances from her neighbors and friends gathered for the party.

Games were played and the hostesses served refreshments. Attending were Mmes. Neil McConlogue, John Homolka, Roland Homolka, Joe Lukes, Wesley Kimble, Virgil Newberry, William Peet, Francis Salata.

The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations and the birthday cake.

Mrs. Allen was feted at a birthday dinner at a local restaurant on Feb. 28.

Attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. John Homolka and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Allen and daughter, Susan Lea.

Purim Fete At Temple Saturday

Steps from the newest dance craze—the Bossa Nova—will be demonstrated and taught by Tony Lanyon, director of the Jan Darien studio, at the Temple Menorah Sisterhood's Purim Party to be held at the Temple, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo, Saturday, March 9, at 8:30 p.m.

In addition to the dance music of Victor Lecandia and his orchestra, Miss Merryl Drabin will entertain on the guitar. Faye and Harry Newman will sing several songs.

A snack consisting of corned beef sandwich, hamantashen, the traditional Purim pastry, and coffee will be served.

Proceeds from the event will support the Religious school.

Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. J. Bernard Rico or Mrs. Edward Sokolski.

Meets Tonight

Golden Bear Council 17, Daughters of America, will meet this evening at the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave., at 7:30 p.m. Stelma Norris will preside.

District I drill team will put on initiation for two new members.

Alums Plan Mexicana 'Fiesta'

Harbor Catholic Alumni Club is planning a gala "Latin Night" for its meeting on March 10 at 8 p.m. in St. Mathew's School cafeteria, Seventh and Temple, in Long Beach.

There'll be dancing senioritas meeting senores, chatting, and sightseeing via a short travelogue "Holiday in Mexico."

Each club member is requested to bring an eligible prospective member to this festive event. Anyone who is Catholic, single and a college graduate, is invited to attend. Jackie Marinovich of Torrance, chairman of the door committee, stated that the evening will be especially adapted to people who are non-members and are interested in joining the group.

Everyone attending is asked to wear his gayest sombrero and bring castinets.

This club meets in Long Beach at St. Mathew's School cafeteria, the second Sunday of each month at 8 p.m.

YOUNG DESIGNER FEELING . . . By The Sidney's this line stripe in black and white, a new pullover suit, was a popular costume at The Broadway Del Amo fashion show for the Peninsula Committee of the Spastic Children's League Tuesday. The longer jacket and the matching fedora hat are fashion news.

Miss DeCamp To Speak To Sisterhood Monday

Rosemary DeCamp, television actress and producer, will be guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of Temple Menorah Sisterhood, at 8 p.m. Monday, March 11, 1963, in the Community Hall of Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

Her topic will be "The World of the Career Woman," following Sisterhood's theme for the year, "Sisterhood Faces the Challenge of the World of Today." In previous months the group has reviewed the worlds of music, art, books, and brotherhood.

Miss DeCamp, who in private life is Mrs. John Shidder, wife of the prominent local judge, has successfully combined the roles of homemaker, mother, active citizen, and show business personality. An added facet has been her recent authorship of "Here, Duke," a charming children's book, which will be available at the meeting.

The general meeting preceding Miss DeCamp's appearance will include the selection of the nominating committee for next year's slate of officers.

Interested South Bay women will be welcome at the meeting, according to Mrs. Philip Weinstein, Torrance, Sisterhood president.

Refreshments will be served following the program by members of the March Circle, including Mmes. J. O. Solomon, Redondo Beach; Robert Eckhouse, Torrance; Martin Platt and Bernard Spanier, Rolling Hills.

New Mexico B & PW President Entertained

Mrs. Mary Snow, president of the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club, with several club members had as their guest on Feb. 27, Mrs. Eleanor Watson, state president of the New Mexico Federation of Business and Professional Women.

With Mrs. Snow and Mrs. Watson at lunch were Virginia Beck, Ruth Brunicy, Bess Tufts, Eileen Emma and Flora Hameetman.
